Equipment of the WWII Tommy

First printed in April 2004. Revised and Expanded Edition printed in July 2010.

644 pages with over 1300 photographs describing the webbing equipment, tools, specialized airborne items and personal effects and documents in general issue to the British and Commonwealth soldiers during the Second World War.

Weapons of the WWII Tommy

First printed in September 2004. Revised and Expanded Edition printed in June 2011.

784 pages with over 1400 photographs plus 150 drawings and diagrams covering the weapons and ordnance related items in general issue to the British and Commonwealth soldiers during the Second World War.

Uniforms of the WWII Tommy

First printed in October 2004. Revised and Expanded Edition printed in April 2012.

644 pages with over 1700 photographs detailing the uniforms and insignia in general issue to the British and Commonwealth soldiers during the Second World War.

This PDF contains a searchable combined index for all three revised editions in the WWII Tommy book series. Page numbers for each topic will have a single alphabetic character prefix indicating the book the topic can be found in. For some instances, this reference will indicate multiple pages which may also be in more than one title.

Copies of the revised and expanded editions of these books are still available in limited quantities and can be found on-line at Amazon <https://www.amazon.com/>, Soldier of Fortune in the UK <https://www.sofmilitary.co.uk/> and on our own Visual Collector surplus militaria sales site <http://www.visualcollector.com/>

A note for uniform collectors: War Department acceptance stamp codes are a single alphabetic character which represents the year that an individual garment was accepted into British Service. Typically a garment will have a manufacturer's size tag that includes the company name or initials along with the date that the item was produced. The acceptance stamp will be separate and in ink. This will usually feature the code for the year the item was accepted, over W / \ D, over the numeric code ID for the inspector or inspection facility. It is possible for the acceptance stamp code to be for the same year that the item was manufactured or later. But the acceptance stamp code will never be for a year that is earlier than the year of manufacture.
